LETTER TO THE GOVERNOR

NEW MEXICO RACING COMMISSION

Honorable Michelle Lujan Grisham
Governor of New Mexico
Office of the Governor
State Capitol Building
Santa Fe, NM 87501

Dear Governor Lujan Grisham,

It is with great pleasure that the New Mexico Racing Commission (NMRC) provide you with the following report of the 2019/2020 racing season/annual report pursuant to 60-1-3(f). This report covers the 4 race meets that were conducted in the State of New Mexico.

The 2019/2020 racing season saw the New Mexico horse racing industry traverse the difficulties of the global pandemic. Due to closures of racing and gaming facilities on March 16, 2020, the New Mexico racing season was modified on multiple occasions in order to adhere to Department of Health orders. Sunland Park closed its doors 21 days shy of its scheduled closing day. The Sun-Ray Park race meet along with the New Mexico State Fair meet were cancelled in their entirety. Subsequently, the Downs at Albuquerque and Zia Park meets were shortened as well.

In its resiliency, the horse racing industry, by way of leadership from the New Mexico Racing Commission, got back on track for the 2020 Ruidoso Downs race meet. Purse money was mobilized from certain racetracks to others in order to jump start the industry to finish out the race season.

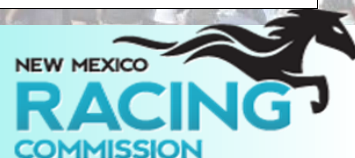

All numbers and statistics pertaining to the 2019/2020 race season will show significant declines as a result of the pandemic.

In closing, the New Mexico Racing Commission assures industry stakeholders and the public in general that it is committed to focusing on navigating through the pandemic with the best interest of horse racing being first and foremost. Our focus will be on maneuvering out of the pandemic and implement change that will nurture the sustainability of the industry for years to come.

As always, the New Mexico Racing Commission staff considers it an honor and privilege to serve the people of the great state of New Mexico. Thank you for the opportunity.

Sincerely,

Ismael Trejo
Executive Director

NMRC DRUG TESTING PROGRAM

The New Mexico Racing Commission continues to reinforce the cornerstone of its regulation by way of a renowned drug testing program for horses. The agency certainly made its best effort to keep its focus on integrity despite a minimal amount of race days and the dissipation of funds to conduct drug testing because of the global pandemic. The number of samples analyzed decreased over 53% in 2020, when compared to 2019. In 2019, a total of 10,565 post race tests were analyzed compared to 4,949 in 2020. The agency's percentage of violations in post-race testing was .87% in 2020, .98% in 2019, down from 3.5% in 2017, a 75% decrease in 4 years. In 2019, the NMRC ranked 3rd in the nation in out of competition samples analyzed. The numbers remained strong, despite the pandemic, as the agency continues to focus on it's out of competition testing program. In total, the agency analyzed 754 out of competition samples with a violation rate of 7.3% in hair samples and 0% in blood samples. In comparison, in 2019, the NMRC had over 819 out of competition samples analyzed with a positivity rate of 7.3% in hair and 2.1% in blood.

AMERICAN QUARTER HORSE ASSOCIATION (AQHA) CHALLENGE

On October 26 of 2019, the Downs at Albuquerque played host to the Bank of America Challenge Quarter Horse Championships. This highly recognized event brought the best equine athletes from across the United States, Canada, South America, and Mexico to compete in the “Super Bowl” of quarter horse racing. A crowd of over 8,000 enjoyed a majestic night of quality horse racing in the Duke City. The event not only shined a well-deserved spotlight on our state, but it also recognizes New Mexico’s efforts as being a leader in integrity in the horse racing industry.

ORGANIZATION OF RACING INVESTIGATORS (ORI)

The New Mexico Racing Commission was proud to host, in conjunction with the Downs at Albuquerque, the 2020 Organization of Racing Investigators (ORI) Annual Conference.

An international group of over 75 ORI members converged on Albuquerque for a progressive filled agenda intended to train racing investigators on numerous innovative topics involving the horse racing industry.

ORI members are employed by government, police, and regulatory entities that have successfully investigated race fixing, horse doping, animal abuse, money laundering, cyber- crime, fraud, conspiracy, and a host of other infractions of the laws and rules that govern professional horse racing and pari-mutuel activity.

The New Mexico Racing Commission’s Chief State Investigator Leasa Johnson was honored for her dedicated service to the ORI and the horse racing industry.

Commissioner Ken Corazza

In September 2021, a memorial for Commissioner Ken Corazza was held at the Downs of Albuquerque. Mr. Corazza was a licensed racehorse owner/breeder and a member of the Horseman's Association and Horse Breeders Association since 1965. Although he had various accomplishments in his lifetime, he served on the Racing Commission under different administrations between 2004-2019, chaired the Medication Committee, and was active in the application process awarding the 5th Racetrack License which led to Zia Park opening its gates. His footprints have been left on an industry that he cared deeply for. He stood firm on his convictions when it came to the well-being of the race horse. It is a testament to his forward thinking which he labeled "radical". He was not a radical, just a compassionate man who cared not only for his and other peoples' horses but for the people he worked with.

The New Mexico Racing Commission proudly commemorates his life and contributions to the horseracing community.
